to Twelve.

New York, August 17.—No new viewpoint in the championship outlook in either of the major leagues has been developed by another seven days of baseball. Of the leaders in the National and American circuits, the New York Giants gained a half game and

The Philadelphia Athletics lost one full game, leaving the situation practically unchanged after a week of interrupted schedules padded with double-headers. Playing better ball than any of the other clubs, McGraw's team not only more than held its own, but succeeded in making up the ground lost to the Phillies during the previous fortnight. The Giants brought their total of victories and defeats to fourteen and six in three weeks past. The Phillies' fig-

The present leads held by the Giants and the Athletics prompted the National Commission to set October 6 as the day on which the 1913 world's series will start if these clubs win the major leagues. His twelfth straight was his twenty-sixth triumph of the season against five defeats.

The star in twirling in the big leagues was Washington's Walter Johnson, who ran his string up to twelve, a record for the season. Johnson, aside from this achievement, pitched his way to the front in the pennants.

Big prices for "funds" in the smaller leagues continued. Manager Chance announced the expenditure of $2,000 for Pitchers McIlale, of Jersey City; Cooper, of Petersburg, and Pieh, of Dayton, and President Ebbitts, of Brooklyn, $30,000 for Pitcher Brown, of Montgomery; Pitcher Alitchison, of Newark, and others. Detroit paid $25,000 for Pitcher Covalleskie, of the Other clubs also bought, sold and exchanged, and one yarn had it that Griffith, of Washington, was prepared to offer $100,000 for Ty Cobb.

Death removed a prominent figure from baseball during the week. William Lockwood, president of the Philadelphia National League Club, died Thursday. W. F. Baker is mentioned as his successor.
